COCHRAN-BLECKLEY INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY WEB GOES LIVE

The Cochran-Bleckley Industrial Development Authority's new website is officially live. Businesses, current and potential residents and visitors can now find information about economic development, Chamber of Commerce, quality of life and tourism online in one convenient location.

The website was designed by award-winning marketing company, 365 Degree Total Marketing. The vibrant, yet elegant design reflects the southern hospitality and charm the community exhibits as well as its progressive positioning for the future. The content includes detailed information that will appeal to relocating, expanding and existing industries including an area labor profile, taxes and incentives, infrastructure and more; quality of life for new and potential residents; and visitor information.

The website is search engine optimized (SEO) and mobile friendly, and we anticipate more than 10,000 viewers this year.

Visit the website at: <http://www.cochran-bleckley.com/>.

The Cochran-Bleckley Industrial Development Authority exists to promote the economic development and diversification of the county's employment and tax base by offering attractive incentives to manufacturing and processing companies to remain and expand, or relocate, to Bleckley County, Georgia.
